

Rali Wine

When the passion comes true ...

PERDAUDIN

Roero Arneis docg

NEGRO

Production area

Piemonte Italia, Monteu Roero

Vineyards

Type: White

Grapes: Arneis

Land: sandy, rich in fossil shells

Altitude: 320 m above sea level

Age of the vineyard: over 35 years

Harvest: September, hand-picking with the 20 kg boxes

Maturation

In stainless steel tanks with “battonage” for 7 months

Refinement

In horizontal bottle position, 5-6 years

Sensory

Intense straw yellow color.

Aroma of white flowers such as acacia and orange blossom, notes of pineapple and pear.

Palate has a strong attack, solid, warm with long final and characterized by a pleasant mineral note.

Serving

It is recommended to be served at 12 °- 13°C

